Do Your Students Like You?

Key Points

•

- Christ is the centrality of our purpose and passion
- 2nd greatest commandment is love others
  - There should be tangible expressions of that love
- When you like and respect someone it's much easier to listen to them and to learn from them
- Relationship influences learning and learning impacts life- change!

How do we earn respect and increase influence?

• AVAILABLE – be available for your students

 ENGAGING – work to make sure your props, visuals and other creative elements really make effective points

- INVOLVE your students in discussion and learning activities
- PREPARED with materials, study and delivery

Discuss – Evaluate – Execute:

Watch the video and then discuss the following questions with your team.

- What point stood-out most to you in the video?
- What practical ideas were listed?
- Discuss ways to practically implement of those ideas.
- Discuss other way you can increase your influence with your students. Write down those ideas.
- Identify one of the ideas that you believe you need to work on.
- What steps can you take to work on that area?
- Write down your ideas and your plan for action.
